

On an Adventures by Disney® trip you're a traveler and an adventurer, not a tourist. You and your family become active participants in incredible stories, experiences and cultures through immersive activities only Disney can bring you.

Adventures by Disney trips include...

Hassle-Free Travel experiences, including meet and greets at the airport, transportation within the trip, luggage services, spectacular dining and truly unique hotels that bring you closer to the destinations you visit, and concierge services to help you plan your free time. With practically all of the details taken care of, you won't have to worry about a thing!

Active Experiences that everyone in the family will enjoy! Junior Adventurers can experience an art detective game in the Louvre Museum or stomp grapes while adults get a "taste" of winemaking history, or as a family, how about a leisurely bike ride amongst breathtaking scenery!

Two Adventure Guides + Local Experts, some of the greatest storytellers in the world. No matter where you go or what you do, our Adventure Guides are there to share their knowledge, insights and passion for the places we visit. Plus, you will also interact with local expert guides along the way too!

VIP Treatment & Admissions including private events and privately guided tours, backstage access, entertainment and special performances, bypass the lines at popular museums and attractions, and all admission fees are included to national and regional parks as applicable.

Magical Moments and Experiences

That Only Disney Could Create! Take an adventure off the beaten path to places you wouldn't find on your own while we introduce you to the locals where you will experience such things as:

- Living just like the kings and queens of yore with a stay in Dromoland Castle.
- Trying your hand at the age-old Greek tradition of cheese making with a local shepherd.
- Learning Tai Chi from a local master with the gum drop mountains as a backdrop!
- Private dining among priceless works of art inside the famed Louvre Museum.

TRAVELING ON YOUR OWN

Time Consuming & Stressful

- ✦ Countless hours of planning and painstakingly researching every activity.
- ✦ Time spent determining transportation between events and dining options.
- ✦ Encountering language barriers.
- ✦ Worrying about where to go and what to do next.
- ✦ Struggling with luggage.

Just the Basics

- ✦ Uncertainty when reserving travel components in advance without first-hand knowledge of the quality.
- ✦ Difficulty making sure both kids and adults are going to enjoy the accommodations/meals available.
- ✦ Inconvenience of handling separate expenses for individual activities, as well as the upset of unexpected costs.

Searching for Cultural Authenticity

- ✦ Questioning where to go to get the most authentic experiences.
- ✦ Checking off the items from your “to see” list without learning the stories behind the places you visit.
- ✦ Leaving without really getting to know the people and the culture.

Encountering “Tourist Traps”

- ✦ Doing the expected, the ordinary, the usual tourist experiences.
- ✦ Rushing about to each activity and then standing in lines with the crowds.
- ✦ Apprehension about scheduling activities and tours that may not deliver excellent service.
