RAINFOREST TO GOLD RUSH

VANCOUVER | WHISTLER | QUESNEL | JASPER

Lillooet, BC

This three-day route takes you from one extreme to the next, in the best way possible. From the world's largest temperate rainforest to desert landscapes. From a vibrant city to a quaint mountain town. From tranquil ranchland to some of the most untamed wilderness anywhere on the planet.

RAINFOREST TO GOLD RUSH

TRAIN DAY 1 | VANCOUVER → WHISTLER

Beginning at the foot of the Coast Mountains, overlooking the stunning city of Vancouver, you'll roll along the scenic fjord of Howe Sound. Prepare to be amazed as you make your way past massive cliffs, deep canyons, and stunning bridges. You'll then arrive at world-famous Whistler, the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games co-host city. There, you'll explore the picturesque village and enjoy a relaxing stay at one of Whistler's hotels.

TRAIN DAY 2 | WHISTLER → QUESNEL

The next day, you'll depart from the wonderful Whistler and travel up the Pemberton Valley, as you glide beside gorgeous Anderson and Seton Lakes. Turning north and west, the landscape becomes more rugged. More wild. Sheer cliffs on one side, milky-green lakes on the other. You'll emerge into the arid ranchland near Quesnel, Canada's gold rush capital. The gold rush may be over, but there are still many treasures to be found in this historic region.

TRAIN DAY 3 | QUESNEL → JASPER

After an overnight hotel stay in Quesnel, you'll head north again. Wide-eyed, you'll experience mountainous terrain, untouched lakes, and incredible waterfalls. You'll gradually gain altitude and enter the Canadian Rocky Mountains. The awesome sight of Mount Robson, the range's highest peak, will greet you as you wind your way to the alluring alpine town of Jasper. Every step of the way, your emotions will follow the extremes of the journey, from silent awe to uncontained elation.

VANCOUVER | WHISTLER | QUESNEL | JASPER

You can also choose to travel westbound, journeying from Jasper to Vancouver.

This route offers the best kind of drama—the nail-biting, edge-of-your-seat kind! Here are a few more highlights along the way that put on a stellar show outside your window:

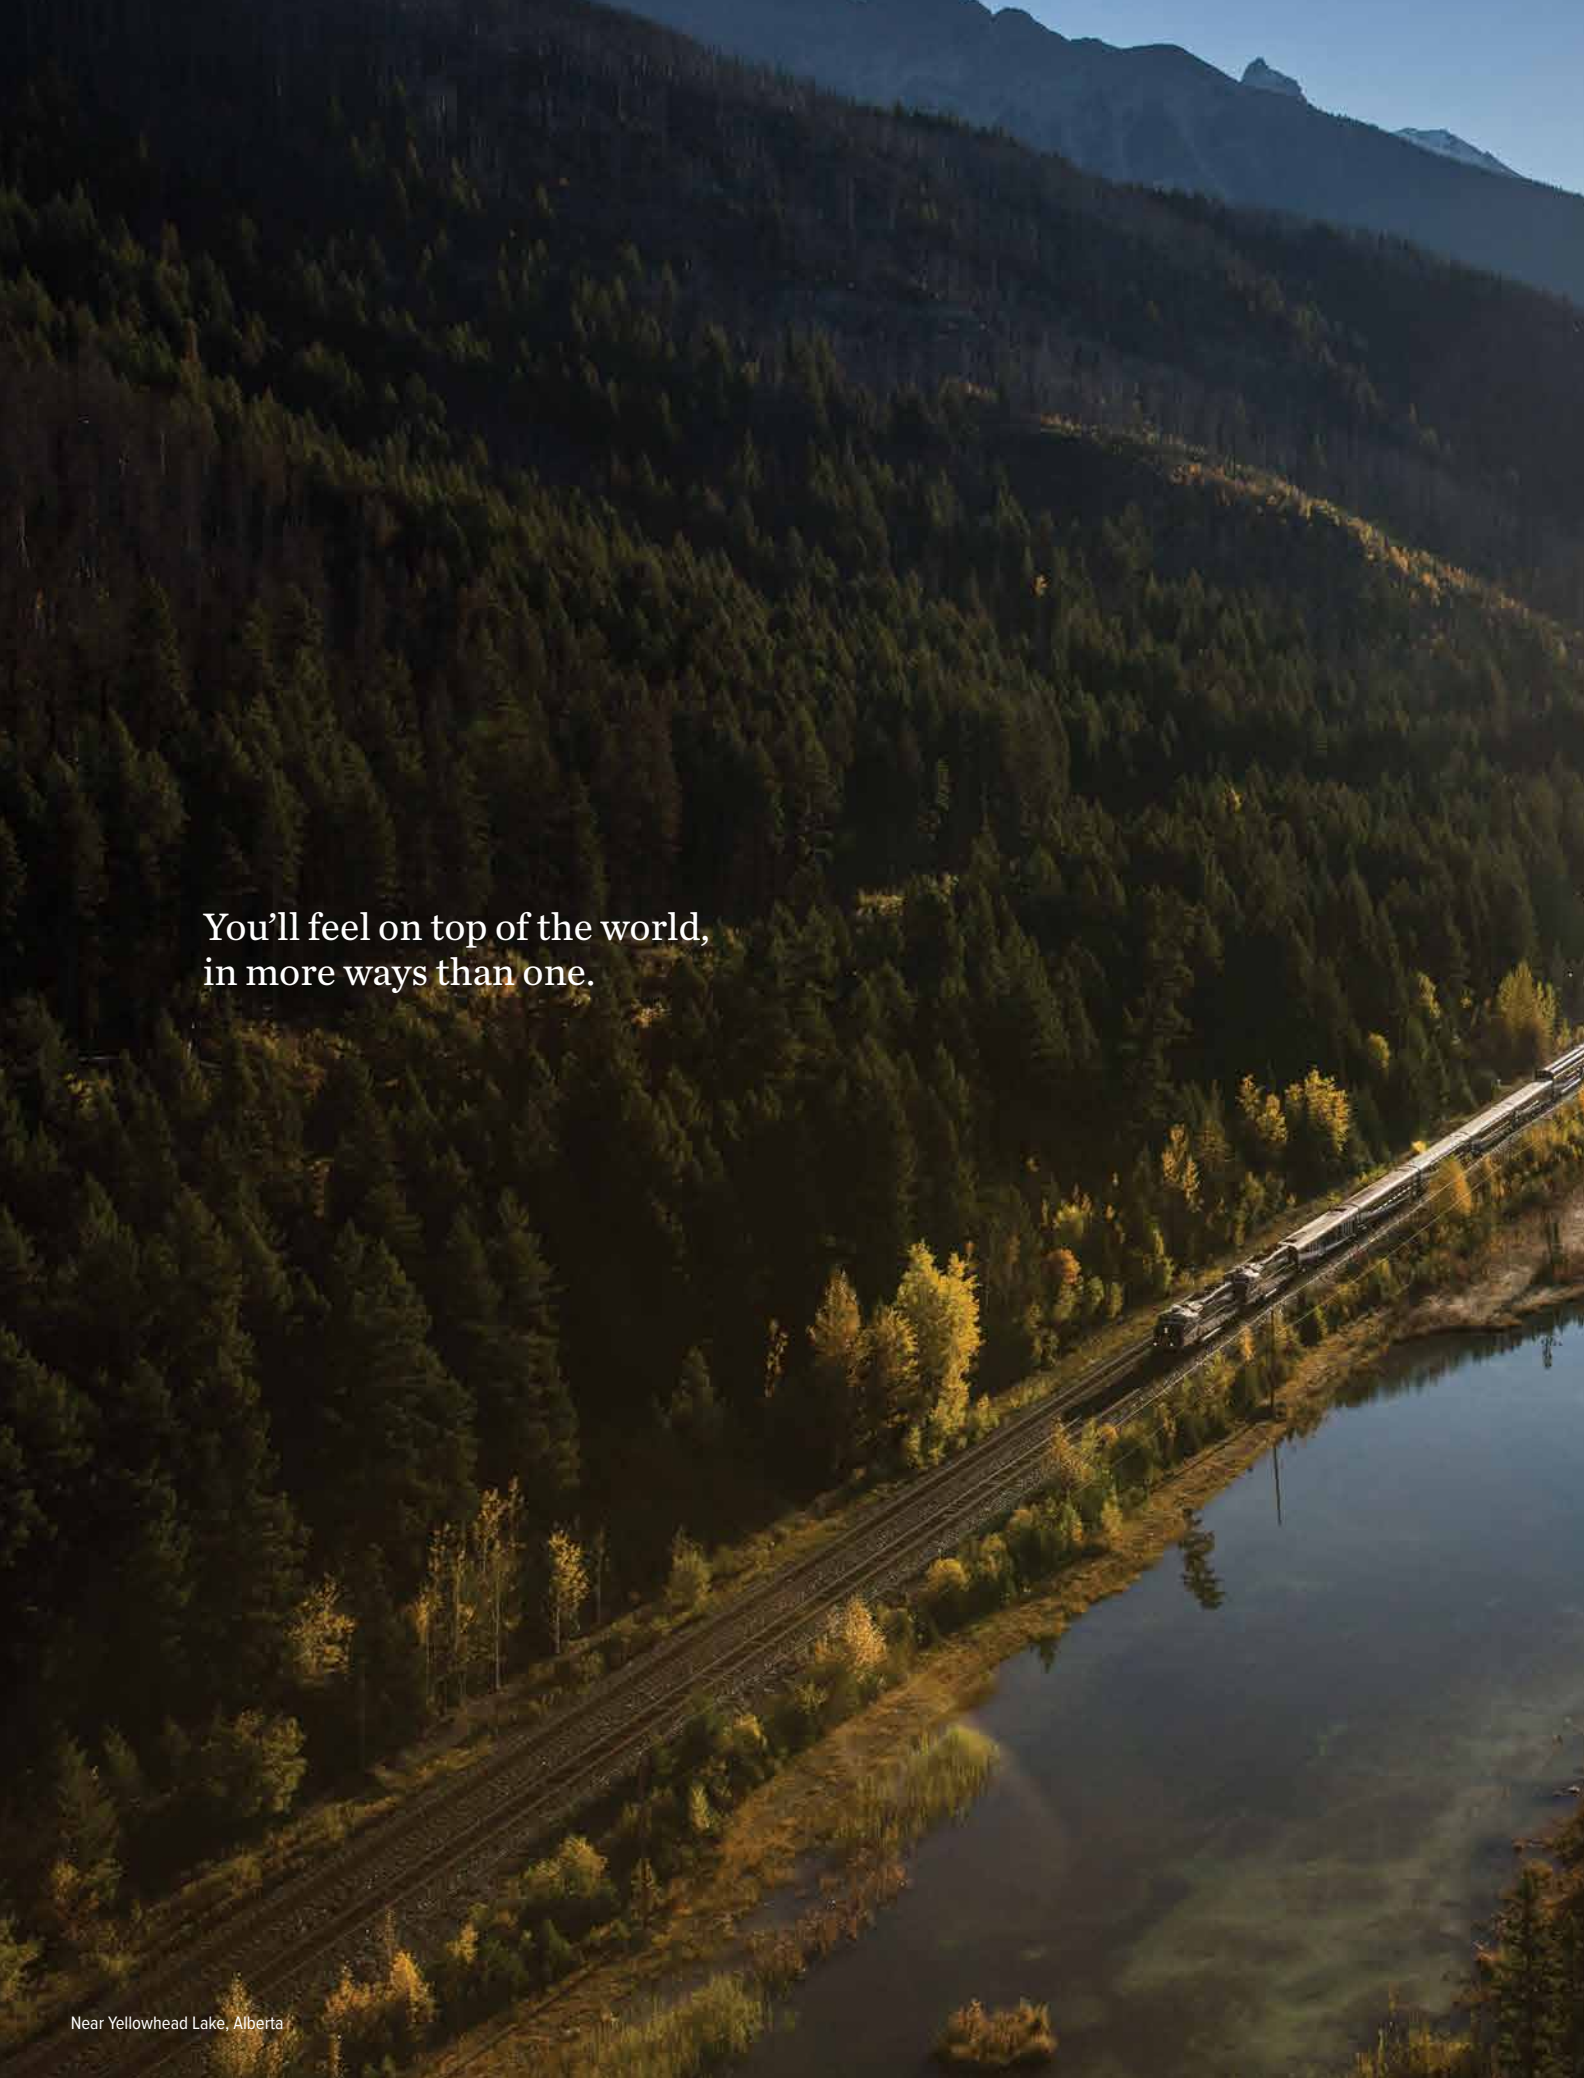

- Cheakamus Canyon
- Brandywine Falls
- Green Lake
- Fraser River Bridge

An aerial photograph captures a train as it travels through a vast, forested valley. The train, consisting of a locomotive and several passenger cars, is positioned on a set of tracks that curve through the landscape. To the right of the tracks, a calm body of water reflects the surrounding scenery. The valley is densely packed with evergreen trees, with some deciduous trees showing early autumn colors of yellow and orange. In the background, rugged mountains rise against a clear blue sky. The overall atmosphere is serene and majestic, emphasizing the beauty of the natural world.

You'll feel on top of the world, in more ways than one.

JOURNEY THROUGH THE CLOUDS

VANCOUVER | KAMLOOPS | JASPER

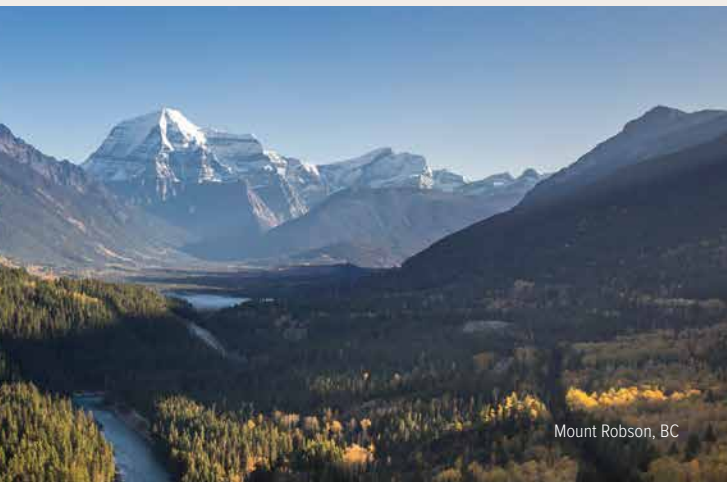

Spotted owl

Yellowhead Lake, Alberta

Mount Robson, BC

By geological standards, the Canadian Rockies are a relatively young mountain range. And because they're remote, they are essentially unspoiled. Our Journey through the Clouds route takes you through some of the most untouched, most breathtaking natural beauty on the planet.

JOURNEY THROUGH THE CLOUDS

TRAIN DAY 1 | VANCOUVER → KAMLOOPS

Your journey starts gently, moving through the fertile farmland of the Fraser Valley and the rolling hills of the Coast Mountains. As your train gains altitude beyond the town of Hope, the Fraser River narrows and the waters run rampant. The train will slow to fully appreciate Hell's Gate, a narrow canyon where the volume of water rushing through is about three times greater than Niagara Falls. At the midway point of your journey, near your overnight stop of Kamloops, the river valley remains lush and green while sagebrush covers the surrounding desert-like hills.

TRAIN DAY 2 | KAMLOOPS → JASPER

When you board the train after spending the night in a charming Kamloops hotel, you will follow the North Thompson River, slowing to take in Pyramid Falls, a 91.5-metre (300-foot) cascade of white water. After giving you time to pick up your jaw, the train continues on to the Yellowhead Pass. Moving past teal-green lakes, you'll close in on Mount Robson, the tallest peak in the Canadian Rockies. It's so high it has its own weather system. The striking thing about this route is that once you've seen what you think is the most beautiful sight ever, something even more stunning comes along. To cap it all off, you'll wind up in the alluring alpine town of Jasper.

VANCOUVER | KAMLOOPS | JASPER

You can also choose to travel westbound, journeying from Jasper to Vancouver.

Keep your ears perked and your camera close. Here are a few more highlights along the way:

- Fort Langley
- Harrison River Bridge
- Cisco Crossing
- Rainbow Canyon
- Avalanche Alley
- Jaws of Death Gorge
- Black Canyon
- Ashcroft
- Moose Lake
- Yellowhead Lake

FIRST PASSAGE TO THE WEST

VANCOUVER | KAMLOOPS | LAKE LOUISE OR BANFF

A scenic landscape featuring a train traveling through a valley. The train, consisting of several passenger cars and a locomotive, is moving along a track that runs through a lush green valley. In the background, there are majestic mountains, including Mount Rundle, which is partially covered in dense evergreen forests. The sky is a clear blue with some wispy clouds. The overall scene is peaceful and picturesque, capturing the beauty of the Canadian Rockies.

See what made the first
Canadians catch their breath.

Mount Rundle, Banff, Alberta

Bighorn sheep

Castle Mountain, Alberta

Our most popular route—First Passage to the West—retraces the steps of the 19th century explorers who first marvelled at this untamed wilderness, and gives a living history lesson on the building of a nation.

FIRST PASSAGE TO THE WEST

TRAIN DAY 1 | VANCOUVER → KAMLOOPS

Board Rocky Mountaineer in the urban oasis of Vancouver and journey through the farmlands of the Fraser Valley. From fertile greenery, the landscape transforms to the towering peaks of the Coast Mountains. You'll see the mighty Fraser River and the raging white waters of Hell's Gate. The train will slow to fully appreciate this narrow canyon where the volume of water rushing through is about three times greater than Niagara Falls. Then, the landscape undergoes another transformation and you'll find yourself amid scrub brush and desert. You will pull in to overnight at a hotel in the city of Kamloops.

TRAIN DAY 2 | KAMLOOPS → LAKE LOUISE or BANFF

Now your venture into the heart of the mountains begins in earnest. Continuing east along the South Thompson River, you'll witness historic Craigellachie. This spot marks where the Last Spike was driven home on the Canadian Pacific Railway line, uniting the nation. You'll marvel at man's ingenuity as Rocky Mountaineer enters the Spiral Tunnels, bored through solid rock beneath a mountain over a century ago. You'll gaze in wonder at cascading waterfalls and icy glaciers spilling over the lips of the peaks above, on your way to the charming alpine town of Banff and the brilliant waters of Lake Louise. All of this craggy wilderness is yours to embrace, from the comfort of your luxurious Rocky Mountaineer coach.

VANCOUVER | KAMLOOPS | LAKE LOUISE OR BANFF

You can also choose to travel westbound, journeying from Lake Louise or Banff to Vancouver.

Around every bend awaits a moment that takes your breath away. Here are a few more highlights that make this route positively squeal-worthy!

WHEN TO TRAVEL

We want you to experience our routes at their absolute best. The good news is that it's always the perfect time to travel onboard Rocky Mountaineer, as all seasons we operate in are beautiful.

APRIL–MAY SPRING

As winter relinquishes its hold and the wilderness comes to life, this is one of the best times to get onboard Rocky Mountaineer. Lakes, streams, and waterfalls swell. Bears lumber out of hibernation. Birds begin nesting. Flower blooms fill fields with vibrant colours. The crowds of summer tourists have yet to arrive. Not to mention, early spring departures offer our best pricing.

JUNE–AUGUST SUMMER

Warm weather urges vegetation to flourish. Newborn animals emerge under their parents' watchful eyes. The rainforest is at its most lush and the arid desert canyons have an especially rugged beauty during June, July, and August. And best of all, the days grow longer, giving you more time to explore our world-class destinations.

SEPTEMBER–OCTOBER AUTUMN

The forests create a vibrant display of red, orange, and gold, mixed with evergreen. Snow frosts the mountain peaks. The animals forage through the wilderness to prepare for the coming winter. Salmon are spotted in rivers and streams as they return to their place of birth. The crowds of summer tourists are waning, and with the arrival of late autumn, you can take advantage of some of our most attractive pricing.

CAREFULLY CRAFTED ADVENTURES

Brand-new for 2018, these carefully curated packages make the perfect complement to your Rocky Mountaineer rail journey. These new adventures range from guided walking tours to gourmet excursions to a stay at a luxurious wilderness resort. All activities are sure to take an already unbelievable trip and push it over the top.

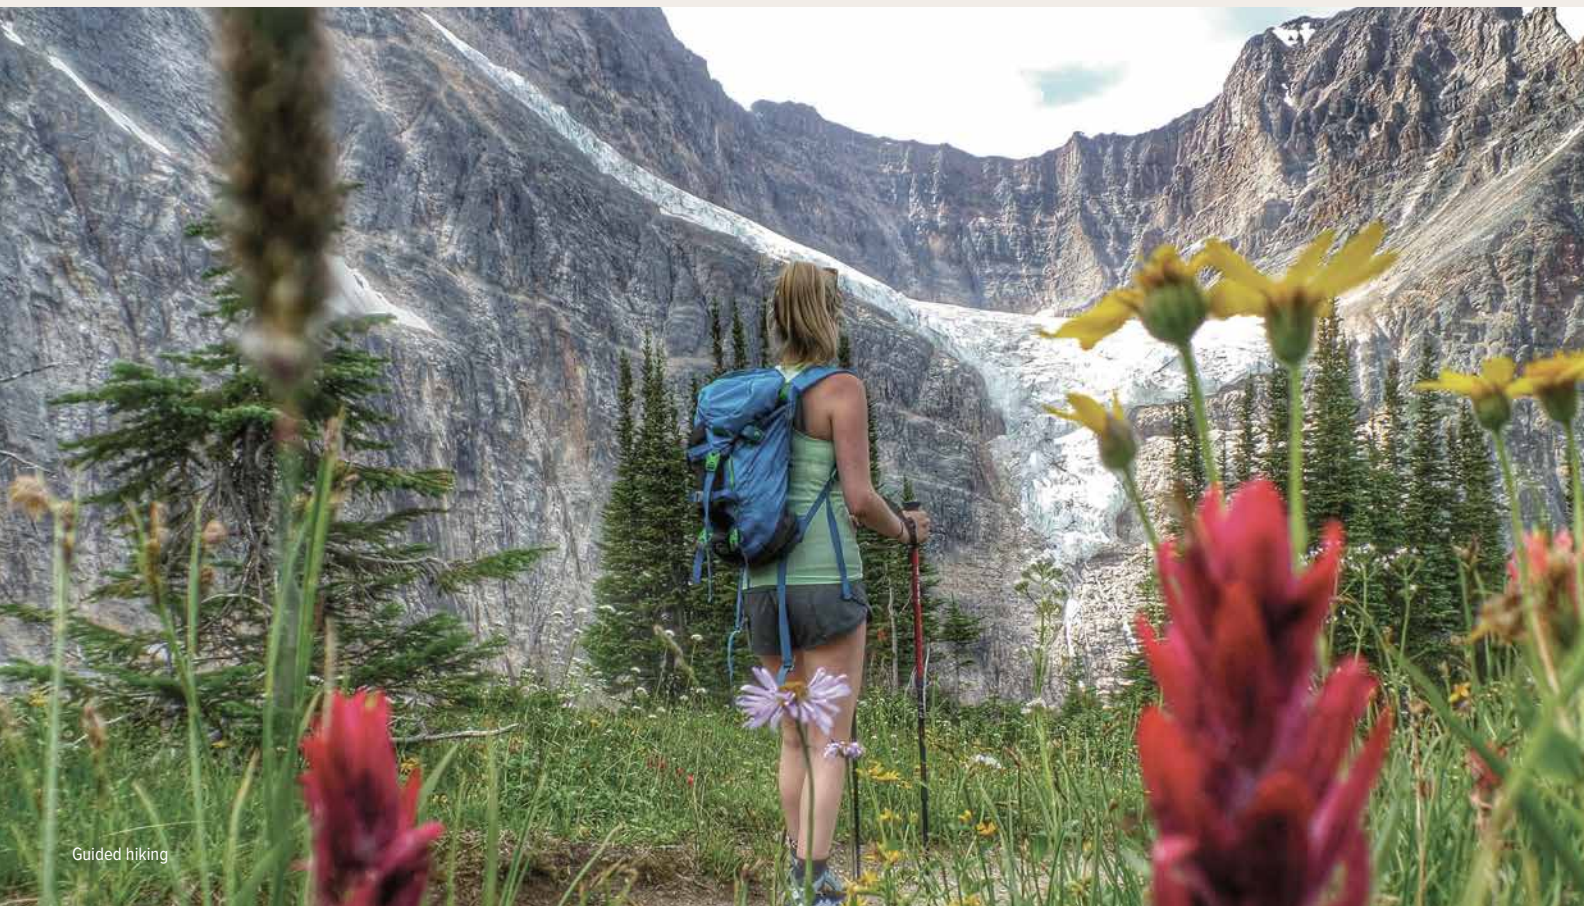

Canadian Rockies Outdoor Adventures

If you have a little extra energy, we have a lot of extra things to show you.

The Journey through the Clouds Outdoor Adventures package gives you a chance to get out and move around in the spectacular scenery on view from the Rocky Mountaineer train. Maybe you'll even burn off some of those delicious gourmet meals.

In Vancouver, you'll choose from either a guided cycling tour, where you'll experience the city's ecology, history, and culture, or you'll explore the nearby Howe Sound in a Zodiac boat, cruising along the water's surface, surrounded by BC's unique Coastal Mountains. On the other side of the Canadian Rockies, you'll paddle a voyageur canoe across the sparkling emerald waters of Lake Louise. Want to get your feet moving? Take a professionally guided nature hiking tour in beautiful Jasper National Park. In Banff, experience a relaxing and refreshing rafting tour down the pristine Bow River Valley and gawk at towering peaks and wildlife in their natural habitat. As you can see, Rocky Mountaineer is not your only means of locomotion. See page 78 for full package details.

Sonora Resort Adventure

Remote, elegant, and exclusive, this five-star hidden gem is well worth uncovering.

This jewel of a package offers you the option of combining Sonora Resort—a five-star all-inclusive getaway in the wilderness—with a Rocky Mountaineer rail journey. A match made in heaven, if we do say so ourselves.

Only accessible by air or sea, Sonora Resort is nestled in British Columbia's Discovery Islands on a remote stretch of pristine coastal rainforest replete with 800-year-old cedars. But it's far from rustic. The accommodations and amenities are a far cry from roughing it.

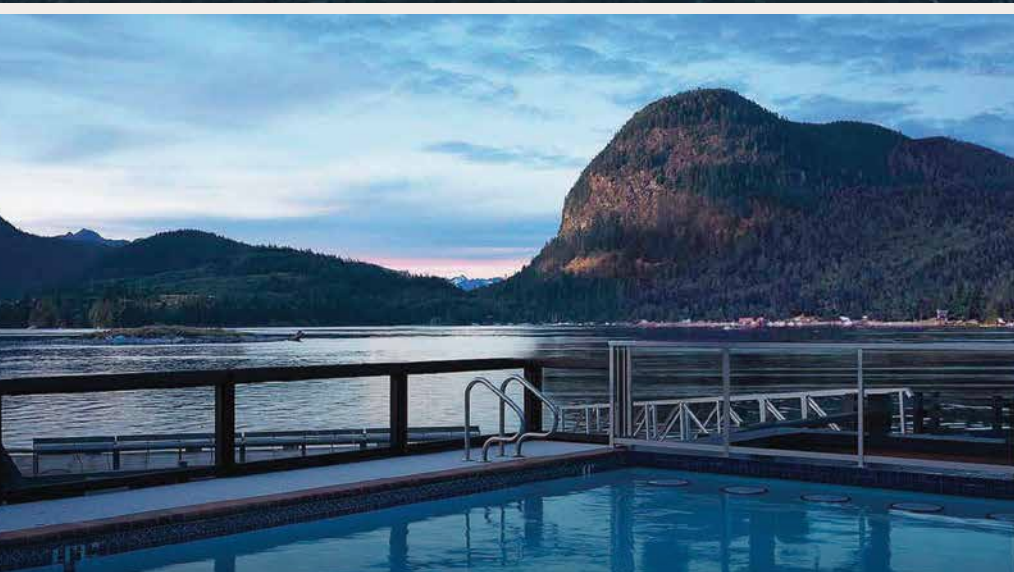

Choose from an abundance of outdoor activities offered, or enjoy the lavish on-site features. We suggest a mix of both. What better way to wind down from hiking and biking through unspoiled wilderness than rejuvenating at the spa? Or, perhaps you'll decide to add on an eco-adventure tour, guided salmon fishing, or a grizzly bear tour. After, you can relax in the rooftop hot tubs, hop into the sauna, take in a movie, or visit the putting green.

Enjoy the Executive Chef's outstanding seasonal menus featuring local ingredients. Chat with the sommelier about which wines to sample from the well-stocked cellar.

Whatever you choose to do, make sure you bring along the binoculars provided in every room. The area is teeming with wildlife like eagles, sea lions, black bears, grizzly bears, porpoises, Pacific white-sided dolphins, orcas, and more. This Relais & Châteaux resort is truly something to call home about—and yes, international phone calls are complimentary.

See pages 81 and 86 for rail and Sonora Resort packages.

OPTIONAL ADD-ON ACTIVITIES*

ECO-ADVENTURE TOUR

Tour the Discovery Islands in a Polaris vessel with a wilderness guide. Learn the local history while watching for bald eagles, Pacific white-sided dolphins, and killer whales.

GUIDED SALMON FISHING

Fish for chinook salmon in the calm waters surrounding Sonora Resort. You'll be provided with all the gear you need, including an experienced guide.

GRIZZLY BEAR TOUR

In September and October, grizzly bears lumber to the Orford River to feast on spawning salmon. Travel to riverside viewing towers to spot these elusive creatures.

*Available at an additional cost.

GETTING HERE: FLY-IN ACCESS

Transportation to the resort is included and is either by a one-hour helicopter or float plane flight from Vancouver's South Terminal. Transfers to and from the airport are also included.

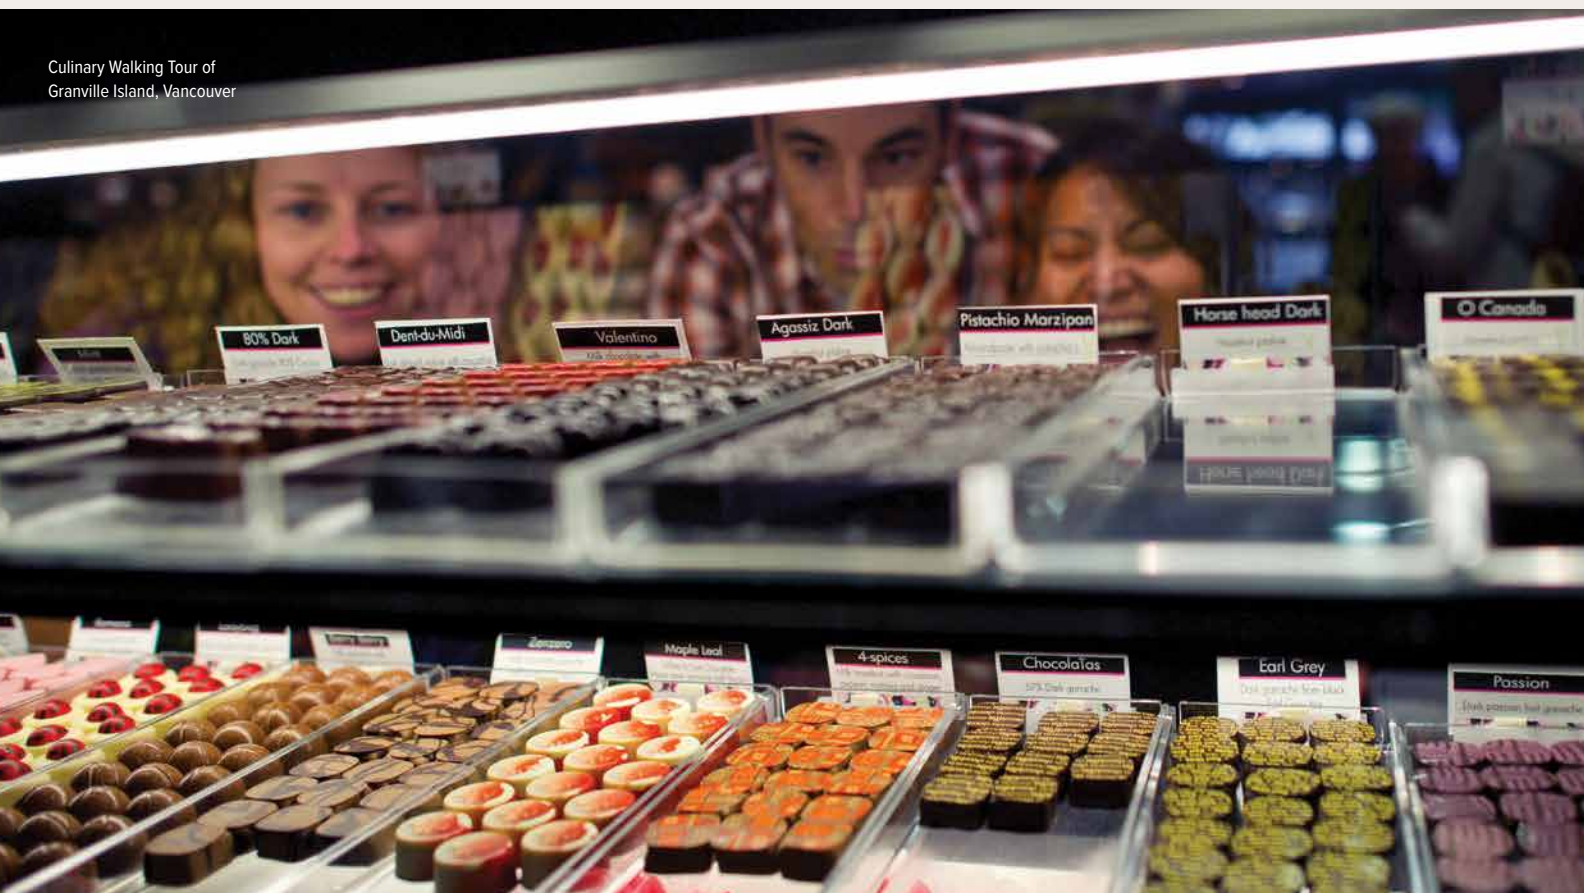

Canadian Rockies Culinary Exploration

Satisfy your hunger for new experiences while satisfying your taste buds.

Take your taste buds on a culinary adventure with Rocky Mountaineer—on and off the train. This palate-pleasing First Passage to the West Culinary Exploration package encompasses casual fare, farm-to-table experiences, and internationally renowned restaurants. Fine dining enthusiasts will love stops in Banff and Lake Louise. At both the Eden Restaurant in the Rimrock Hotel (Banff) and the Post Hotel Dining Room (Lake Louise), you'll get to enjoy an exclusive six-course wine-paired tasting menu from world-class chefs. Vancouver and Calgary, on the other hand, will build your appetite with guided walks. Vancouver offers a culinary walking tour of Granville Island or Chinatown, giving you the chance to meet local artisans and taste the abundance of British Columbia. Meanwhile, Calgary invites you on a culinary expedition of local restaurants and producers as you tour one of Calgary's neighbourhoods. Salivating already? See page 87 for the First Passage to the West Culinary Exploration package and start planning.

Narrowing down which unforgettable sights you want to take in isn't easy, we know.

RAINFOREST TO GOLD RUSH

Our newest three-day route connects Vancouver, British Columbia, to Jasper, Alberta, with overnight hotel stays in Whistler and Quesnel.

This route boasts the most diverse terrain of any of our routes. You'll start your journey in the multicultural city of Vancouver. From there, take in the coastal temperate rainforest, as you make your way to the jaw-dropping Whistler—make sure you explore the cute village. You'll then roll past the glorious Anderson and Seton Lakes to the arid ranchland near Quesnel, Canada's gold rush capital. Then, it's on to the Canadian Rockies where you'll encounter placid glacier-fed lakes and stunning Mount Robson, the range's highest peak.

Like all of our routes, guests can also choose to travel westbound, from Jasper to Vancouver. Overnight in hotel accommodation throughout your journey.

-----------	----------	---------	--------

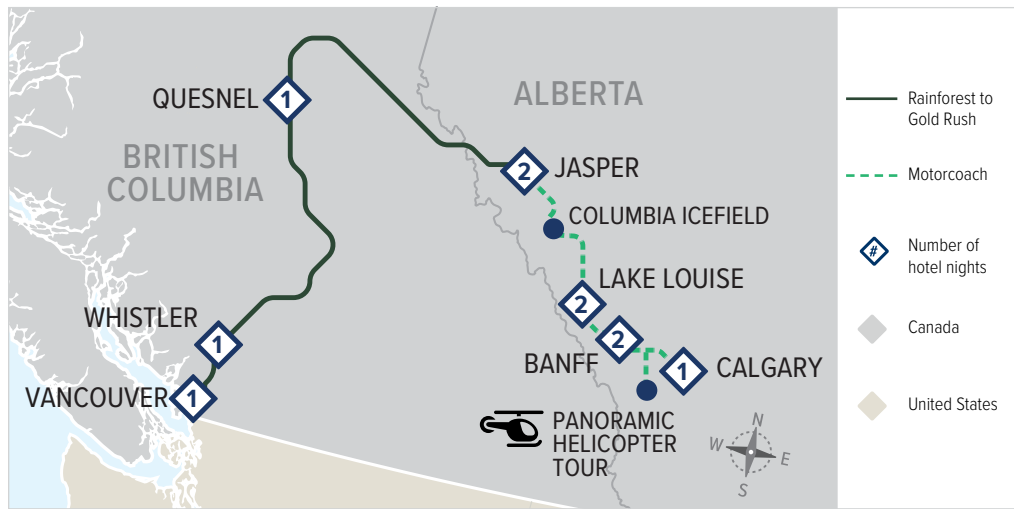

Travel this route Eastbound (EB) from Vancouver to Jasper, or Westbound (WB) from Jasper to Vancouver. While all itineraries are shown Eastbound (EB), where you begin and end is your call.
To assist when booking, please use the Tour Codes found at the top of each tour description.

5. WHAT IS THE PROTOCOL CONCERNING GRATUITIES FOR ROCKY MOUNTAINEER HOSTS?

Gratuities are not included in prices (unless indicated) for Rocky Mountaineer Hosts, driver-guides, transfers, tour escorts, hotel portage, or Red Cap Porters. You can find a recommended breakdown based on class of service and journey at rockymountaineer.com, now under “Onboard Experience” in the FAQ section. If you are travelling on an organized tour, you may want to check with your Tour Director to confirm the amount of gratuity for your Hosts that may have been included in your tour package.

7. AM I ABLE TO BRING MY PET ALONG?

All pets or animals (excluding qualified service animals for guests with disabilities) are prohibited from travelling onboard Rocky Mountaineer.

9. Force Majeure

Rocky Mountaineer and GCRCL will not be responsible for the performance of this agreement if prevented or delayed by acts of God, strikes or other labour relations matters, accidents, weather, traffic, airport conditions, lack of performance by third-party suppliers, or other causes beyond their reasonable control from meeting its terms. Nor will they be responsible for any loss or damage relating to train cancellations or any other cancellations. Rocky Mountaineer and GCRCL reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any person as a tour participant should such person's behaviour, health, or mental condition be detrimental to the operation of the tour or to other passengers.
